POWERING POTENTIAL

THE SPRINT RETROSPECTIVE

OBJECTIVES

To Understand

The Sprint Retrospective

The Roles that should attend

THE SPRINT RETROSPECTIVE

The sprint retrospective meeting is an opportunity for the scrum team to inspect itself and create a plan for improvements to be made during the next sprint.

Roles attending

- Scrum Master
- Development Team

THE SPRINT RETROSPECTIVE

The goal of the retrospective is to:

- Inspect how the last sprint went with regards to people, relationships, process, and tools
- Identify what went well and potential improvements that could be made
- Create a plan for implementing improvements to the way the scrum team works

Sprint retrospective discussions

What Went Well:

Celebrate successes from the team and the members collaboration.

Challenges:

Obstacles and challenges encountered and identify the root causes

Improvement:

Explore areas for improvement and solutions to enhance efficiency.

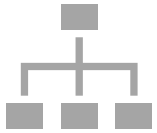
Communication:

Evaluate communication within the team and with stakeholders and any breakdowns

Sprint retrospective discussions

Collaboration:

Assess the level of collaboration among team members.



Workload and Capacity:

Discuss if the team had the right balance of work and if adjustments are needed.

Meeting Effectiveness:

Review the effectiveness of various meetings and improvements we could make.

Technical Debt:

Address any work the team had to do which were not in the official User stories

Sprint retrospective discussions

Quality of Deliverables:

Assess the quality of the delivered and if the DoDs were consistently met.

Learning and Development:

Discuss opportunities for skill development and learning.

Time Management:

Evaluate how well the team managed their time during the sprint.

Agile Principles:

Assess how well the team adhered to Agile principles and values.

Sprint retrospective discussions

Tools and Resources:

Discuss the effectiveness of tools and resources used during the sprint.

Identify improvements or changes needed in the toolset.

Customer Feedback:

Review any feedback and how to incorporate them into future work.

Team Morale:

Assess the overall morale and well-being of the team.

REVIEW

You Understand

- How The Sprint Retrospective can be used to drive Continuous Improvement
- The Roles that should attend

LAB

Complete Lab11

Duration 30 minutes